Welcome Back!

Happy New Year! And a big welcome to our new afternoon Nursery children.

We start our challenge this term as ever with a 'hook' to get the children engaged - as we are hoping to get ideas for our Parade from a workshop run by 'Arts Brasil' next week; details to follow.

There will be a parental contribution requirement of £5 per child for MORNING NURSERY children. The new afternoon Nursery children will have their workshop next year.

Wellies and uniform

Polite reminder that the school uniform for nursery is on the website, and includes a PAIR OF WELLIES to be left in nursery please!

We have no spare trousers left in Nursery. Could you help us please by keeping a spare pair in their bag .

WALT stands for 'we are learning to'.

This half term our Learning Challenge is to Create a Parade for our Families, as we learn about Me and My School.

As part of our learning we will learn about different parades around the world, hold an Arts carnival workshop for the children, work creatively with music, costume and song and then think about how we can express ourselves at a Carnival before Easter!

If anyone has had a clear out over Christmas and has any good quality outdoor toys or games that need a new home we would gladly take them for our outdoor area!

Parent Voice

We will be sending home Child Observations in the next few weeks— could you please make sure Nursery staff have your current email address.

Stories to share:

The children are looking at Julia Donaldson as an author.
